

Sreevidya Ayyar

London School of Economics and Political Science
London, United Kingdom, WC1E 6BT
Email: s.ayyar1@lse.ac.uk

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Development Economics, Environmental Economics, Econometrics

EDUCATION

MRes/PhD in Economics

London School of Economics and Political Science, London (expected 2021-2026)

MSc Econometrics & Mathematical Economics – Distinction, ranked first
London School of Economics and Political Science, London (2019-20)

Courses: Econometric Analysis (94%), Further Topics in Econometrics (93%), Advanced Microeconomics (90%), Advanced Macroeconomics (83%)

BA in Economics and Management – First Class Honors, ranked first
St. Hilda's College, University of Oxford (2016-19)

SELECTED WORKS IN PROGRESS

Does uplifting the poor stimulate growth? Evidence from Bangladesh

Migration in the Face of Climate Change: Assessing the Potential of Ultra-Poor Graduation Programs (w/ Sarah Winton). Primary data collection ongoing.

Golden Traps: Self-Reinforcing Dynamics of Artisanal Mining and Agricultural Land Degradation in Ghana (with Yoshiki Wiskamp).

Imagine your Life at 25: Children's Gender Attitudes and Later-Life Outcomes (with Uta Bolt, Eric French and Cormac O'Dea). Draft version here.

Conditional likelihood ratio test with many weak instruments (with Taisuke Otsu and Yukitoshi Matsushita). Econometric Theory, 2025.

GRANTS

JPAL King Climate Action Initiative Grant for “Migration in the Face of Climate Change: Assessing the Potential of Ultra-Poor Graduation Programs”
Amount: $75,000.00 [Principal Investigator with Sarah Winton]

STICERD LSE for “Migration in the Face of Climate Change: Assessing the Potential of Ultra-Poor Graduation Programs”
Amount: £5000 [Principal Investigator with Sarah Winton]

Structural Transformation & Economic Growth (STEG) Grant for “Migration in the Face of Climate Change: Assessing the Potential of Ultra-Poor Graduation Programs”
Amount: £10,380.00 [Principal Investigator with Sarah Winton]

POLICY WORK	Climate Migration and International Aid (link) G ² LM LIC Synthesis Paper (with Gharad Bryan and Felix Iglhaut)
RESEARCH EXPERIENCE	Occasional Research Assistant to Professor Gharad Bryan London School of Economics and Political Science, 2021-22 Research Assistant to Professor Eric French University College of London, 2020-21 Research Associate at London Economics (London), 2018
REFeree SERVICE	Journal of Labour Economics
CONFERENCES	2023-4: NBER Children Programme Meeting* (Boston), Society of Labor Economics Annual Conference* (Portland), Sixth Monash-Warwick-Zurich Text-As-Data Workshop (Online), NBER Program on Children Meeting 2024, Royal Economic Society Annual Conference* (Glasgow), Intergenerational transfers, Insurance and the Transmission of Inequality* (Institute of Fiscal Studies, London) (* Denotes presentation by coauthor)
TEACHING EXPERIENCE	Teaching Assistant for PP402: Quantitative Methods for Public Policy (for Masters of Public Policy) – London School of Economics and Political Science, 2025-26 Teaching Assistant for EC2C4: Econometrics I (for second year undergraduate students in Economics) – London School of Economics and Political Science, 2025-26 Teaching Assistant for EC2C3: Econometrics I (for second year undergraduate students in Economics) – London School of Economics and Political Science, 2024-25 Teaching Assistant for EC2C1: Econometrics II (for second year undergraduate students in Economics) – London School of Economics and Political Science, 2022-24
AWARDS	LSE Class Teacher Award for EC2C1, 2024 LSE Class Teacher Award for EC2C1, 2023 LSE ESRC PhD Studentship, 2021-2026 Ely Devons Prize for Outstanding Performance (LSE), 2020 Lubbock Prize for best performance in degree cohort (University of Oxford), 2019 Gibbs prize for best performance in Economics (University of Oxford), 2019 Agnes Lyes Scholarship for academic excellence (St. Hilda's College), 2016-19 Gibbs University Scholarship for General Management (University of Oxford), 2016
SKILLS	Languages: English (native), French, Hindi, Tamil Computer Skills: STATA, R, L^AT_EX, Python, Matlab, Github